DECISIONS UNDER PRIOR LAW

ANALYSIS

Instructions concerning administrative review.
Publication.

Instructions Concerning Administrative Review.

The public policy behind this statute should encourage administrative agencies to attach to all preliminary orders instructions concerning the available administrative review of those orders. Williams v. State, 95 Idaho 5, 501 P.2d 203 (1972).

Publication.

In satisfying its duty to publish its rules, an administrative agency must at least furnish state, district and county law libraries with complete sets of pertinent agency rules and regulations; if it fails to do so its rules and regulations are without force and effect. Williams v. State, 95 Idaho 5, 501 P.2d 203 (1972).

The rules and regulations of an agency must be properly published and made available for public inspection before the doctrine of exhaustion of administrative remedies becomes applicable; therefore trial court could not rule as a matter of law on motion to dismiss that appellants had not complied with agency regulations and exhausted its administrative remedy in view of factual issue regarding whether or not the agency's regulations had been published. Williams v. State, 95 Idaho 5, 501 P.2d 203 (1972).

To satisfy the requirement that an agency ruling must be made available for public inspection in order to be given full force and effect, an agency must file in its central office a certified copy of each rule adopted by it as required by former law and must "publish" all effective rules adopted by it as required by this section. Williams v. State, 95 Idaho 5, 501 P.2d 203 (1972).

Compiler's notes. This section was amended by two 1994 acts — ch. 271, § 2, and ch. 371, § 3, both effective July 1, 1994 — which do appear to conflict.

The amendment by ch. 271, § 2, added "including a citation to a specific federal statute or regulation if that is the basis of authority or requirement for the rulemaking" at the end of paragraph (1)(a); and in the PUBLIC NOTICE in paragraph (2)(a), substituted "and" for "[an]d" following "complete text", which word was deleted by ch. 371.

The amendment by ch. 371, § 3, in paragraph (2)(a), deleted "but less than twelve (12) points," following "greater than seven (7) points," and substituted "A prominent bold typeface heading designed to alert readers to the rules and information contained in the notice. The notice shall include the agency name and address, rule number, rule subject matter as provided in paragraph (1)(b) of this section, and the comment deadline. A brief statement in a prominent bold typeface that informs citizens where they can view the administrative bulletin in hard copy or electronic form shall be included." for a form titled "PUBLIC NOTICE OF INTENT TO PROPOSE OR PROMULGATE NEW OR CHANGED AGENCY RULES"; and added the last sentence of paragraph (2)(b).

ANALYSIS

Emergency rule-making.

Handbook adopted defectively.

Statements concerning internal management.

Emergency Rule-Making.

The Idaho Department of Health and Welfare clearly complied with the emergency rule-making provisions in adopting rules and regulations for pre-admission screening of nursing home patients for mental illness. Idaho Health Care Ass'n v. Sullivan, 716 F. Supp. 464 (D. Idaho 1989).

Handbook Adopted Defectively.

Where an administrative agency's policy and procedures manual was not adopted pursuant to the procedural requirements of this section, the agency's handbook had to be construed as merely an internal guideline capable of being changed by an agency head when necessary, not having the force and effect of law, and since the manual did not have the force and effect of law, no cause of action could be based on its alleged violation. Service Employees Int'l Local 6 v. Idaho Dep't of Health & Welfare, 106 Idaho 756, 683 P.2d 404 (1984).

Statements Concerning Internal Management.

Subdivision (7) of § 67-5201 does not provide for two types of rules, those that must be promulgated according to this section, and those that need not. Rather, subdivision (7) of § 67-5201 is a definitional term which provides that "statements concerning only the internal management of any agency and not affecting private rights or procedures available to the public . . ." are not rules; not being rules, they do not have the force and effect of law, and a violation of them does not create a private cause of action. Service Employees Int'l Local 6 v. Idaho Dep't of Health & Welfare, 106 Idaho 756, 683 P.2d 404 (1984).

67-5222. Public participation. — (1) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule, the agency shall afford all interested persons reasonable opportunity to submit data, views and arguments, orally or in writing. The agency shall receive comments for not less than twenty-one (21) days after the date of publication of the notice of proposed rulemaking in the bulletin.

(2) When promulgating substantive rules, the agency shall provide an opportunity for oral presentation if requested by twenty-five (25) persons, a political subdivision, or an agency. The request must be made in writing and be within fourteen (14) days of the date of publication of the notice of proposed rulemaking in the bulletin, or within fourteen (14) days prior to the end of the comment period, whichever is later. An opportunity for oral presentation need not be provided when the agency has no discretion as to the substantive content of a proposed rule because the proposed rule is intended solely to comply:

- (a) with a controlling judicial decision or court order; or
- (b) with the provisions of a statute or federal rule that has been amended since the adoption of the agency rule. [I.C., § 67-5222, as added by 1992, ch. 263, § 12, p. 783.]

Compiler's notes. Section 11 of S.L. 1992, ch. 263 contained a repeal and § 10 is compiled as § 67-5221.

67-5223. Interim legislative review — Legislative hearings — Statement of economic impact. — (1) At the same time that notice of proposed rulemaking is filed with the coordinator, the agency shall provide the same notice, accompanied by the full text of the rule under consideration in legislative format, as well as a statement of the substance of the intended action, to the director of the legislative council. If the proposed rulemaking is based upon a requirement of federal law or regulation, a copy of that specific federal law or regulation shall accompany the submission to the director of the legislative council. The director of the legislative council shall analyze and refer the material under consideration to the germane joint subcommittee created in section 67-454, Idaho Code.

(2) If the germane joint subcommittee notifies the agency within fourteen (14) days of the date of publication of the notice of proposed rulemaking in the bulletin or within fourteen (14) days prior to the end of the comment period, whichever is later, that the subcommittee intends to hold a hearing on the proposed rulemaking within fourteen (14) days, the agency shall extend the comment period for such additional time as required to receive comments from the subcommittee. The notification from the germane joint subcommittee to the agency shall be sent to the agency and shall also be published in the bulletin.

(3) An agency shall prepare and deliver to the germane joint subcommittee a statement of economic impact with respect to a proposed rule if, within fourteen (14) days of the receipt of the proposed rule, the germane joint subcommittee files a written request with the agency for such a statement. The statement shall contain an evaluation of the costs and benefits of the rule, including any health, safety, or welfare costs and benefits. The adequacy of the contents of the statement of economic impact is not subject to judicial review. [I.C., § 67-5223, as added by 1992, ch. 263, § 13, p. 783; am. 1994, ch. 271, § 3, p. 834.]

Compiler's notes. Section 2 of S.L. 1994, ch. 271 is compiled as § 67-5221.

Sec. to sec. ref. This section is referred to in §§ 33-105 and 67-5226.

Opinions of Attorney General. A nutrient management plan developed by the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare pursuant to § 39-105 is subject to legislative review pursuant to this section and § 67-5291 and further, the limitation on authority granted to the department and the broad authority granted the board supports the conclusion that the plan is subject to review by the board. OAG 94-2.

67-5224. Final rule. — (1) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule, the agency shall consider fully all written and oral submissions respecting the proposed rule.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, the agency shall publish the text of the final rule in the bulletin. In addition, the agency shall publish a concise explanatory statement containing:

- (a) reasons for adopting the final rule; and
- (b) a statement of any change between the text of the proposed rule and the text of the final rule with an explanation of the reasons for any changes.

(3) With the permission of the coordinator, the agency need not publish in full the text of the final rule if no significant changes have been made from the text of the proposed rule as published in the bulletin, but the notice of adoption of the final rule must cite the volume of the bulletin where the text is available and note all changes that have been made.

(4) An agency shall not publish a final rule until at least seven (7) days after the close of all public comment.

(5) When the legislature approves, amends or modifies a rule pursuant to section 67-5291, Idaho Code, such rule shall become final upon adoption of the concurrent resolution or such other date specified in the concurrent resolution. Otherwise, except as set forth in sections 67-5226 and 67-5228, Idaho Code, no rule adopted by an agency shall become final until the conclusion of a regular or special legislative session to which such rule has been submitted for review. Provided however, that except as set forth in sections 67-5226 and 67-5228, Idaho Code, no rule imposing a fee or charge of any kind shall become effective until it has been approved, amended or modified by concurrent resolution. [I.C., § 67-5224, as added by 1992, ch. 263, § 14, p. 783; am. 1995, ch. 196, § 1, p. 686.]

Compiler's notes. Section 2 of S.L. 1995, ch. 196 is compiled as § 67-5226.

67-5225. Rulemaking record. — (1) Prior to the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule, the agency shall prepare a rulemaking record. The record shall be maintained in the main offices of the agency.

(2) The rulemaking record shall be available for public inspection and copying. The rulemaking record must contain:

- (a) copies of all publications in the bulletin;
- (b) all written petitions, submissions, and comments received by the agency and the agency's response to those petitions, submissions, and comments;
- (c) all written materials considered by the agency in connection with the formulation, proposal, or adoption of the rule;
- (d) a record of any oral presentations, any transcriptions of oral presentations, and any memorandum prepared by a presiding officer summarizing the contents of the presentations; and
- (e) any other materials or documents prepared in conjunction with the rulemaking.

(3) Except as otherwise required by a provision of law, the rulemaking record need not constitute the exclusive basis for agency action on that rule or for judicial review thereof.

(4) The record required in this section shall be maintained by the agency for a period of not less than two (2) years after the effective date of the rule. [I.C., § 67-5225, as added by 1992, ch. 263, § 15, p. 783; am. 1995, ch. 270, § 1, p. 868.]

Compiler's notes. Section 2 of S.L. 1995, ch. 270 is compiled as § 67-5230.

Sec. to sec. ref. This section is referred to in § 67-5275.

67-5226. Temporary rules. — (1) If the governor finds that:

- (a) it is reasonably necessary to protect the public health, safety, or welfare; or
- (b) compliance with deadlines in amendments to governing law or federal programs; or
- (c) conferring a benefit;

requires a rule to become effective before it has been submitted to the legislature for review the agency may proceed with such notice as is practicable and adopt a temporary rule. The agency may make the temporary rule immediately effective. The agency shall incorporate the required finding and a concise statement of its supporting reasons in each rule adopted in reliance upon the provisions of this subsection.

(2) A rule adopted pursuant to subsection (1) of this section which imposes a fee or charge may become effective under this section before it has been approved, amended or modified by concurrent resolution only if the governor finds that the fee or charge is necessary to avoid immediate danger which justifies the imposition of such fee or charge.

(3) In no case shall a rule adopted pursuant to this section remain in effect beyond the conclusion of the next succeeding regular session of the legislature unless such rule is approved, amended or modified by concurrent resolution, in which case such rule may remain in effect until the time specified in the resolution or until such rule has been replaced by a permanent rule adopted in accordance with the rulemaking requirements of this chapter.

(4) Temporary rules shall be published in the first available issue of the bulletin.

(5) Temporary rules are not subject to the requirements of section 67-5223, Idaho Code.

(6) Concurrently with the promulgation of a rule under this section, or as soon as reasonably possible thereafter, an agency shall commence the promulgation of a permanent rule in accordance with the rulemaking requirements of this chapter. [I.C., § 67-5226, as added by 1992, ch. 263, § 16, p. 783; am. 1995, ch. 196, § 2, p. 686.]

Compiler's notes. Sections 1 and 3 of S.L. 1995, ch. 196 are compiled as §§ 67-5224 and 67-5291, respectively.

67-5227. Variance between final rule and proposed rule. — An agency may adopt a final rule that varies in content from that which was originally proposed if the subject matter of the rule remains the same, the final rule is a logical outgrowth of the proposed rule, and the original notice was written so as to assure that members of the public were reasonably notified of the subject of agency action in order for such members of the public to determine whether their interests could be affected by agency action on that subject. [I.C., § 67-5227, as added by 1992, ch. 263, § 17, p. 783; am. 1993, ch. 216, § 106, p. 587.]

The agency shall deny the petition or initiate rulemaking proceedings in accordance with this chapter within twenty-eight (28) days after submission of the petition, unless the agency's rules are adopted by a multimember agency board or commission whose members are not full-time officers or employees of the state, in which case the agency shall take action on the petition no later than the first regularly scheduled meeting of that board or commission that takes place seven (7) or more days after submission of the petition.
